ABOUT JAYBEE

Inspiring and connecting diverse audiences with her dynamic presence, Jennifer 'JayBee' Beasley stands as a beacon of empowerment and resilience. With over a decade of expertise in community engagement, marketing, events, and public speaking, JayBee has established herself as a formidable Social Impact Leader and Host.

As one of the first from Compton to do it, this TEDx speaker shares her powerful insights and experiences in her talk 'Celebrate Your Cancer', further amplifying her unique voice that resonates with communities, encouraging hope, self-esteem and transformation. An accomplished self-published author (Straight Outta Chemo: A Fight for Love and Life) and award-winning community advocate for the underrepresented (Compton Celebrity TM), JayBee's personal journey as a cancer survivor fuels her dedication to helping others overcome adversity and reach their highest potential.

Additionally, she serves as an in-game sports host for multiple sports teams in Las Vegas, bringing her vibrant energy to the excitement of live events. Guided by her motto to "just believe," her story and work continue to inspire countless individuals to embrace their strengths and pursue meaningful change as demonstrated in her mentorship and public speaking course, 'Talk It Like You Walk It' There's Always More 2 JayBee!

Future: Currently pursuing a credential from the NYU Tisch School, JayBee's big picture would come full circle by beginning and ending her career as the VP of Philanthropy and Corporate Responsibility with a major sports team.

SERVICES

EVENT HOST: As Master of Ceremonies, I assist with the flow of show and smooth transitions of your guests to the next part of program. Family friendly, comedic and witty, audience interaction, engagement and laughter are what make a JayBee hosted event, the most bragged about. Ask me about my wedding officiant package!

PUBLIC SPEAKING COACH: Do you have the words but don't know how to properly convey them? As a TEDx Speaker, gracing over 100 stages, talking about community, sports, health and empowerment, it's taken years to get comfortable and consistent. Invest in a 4-week in-person or virtual Public Speaking Bootcamp and learn to 'Talk it Like You Walk It' and master your message.

EVENT CONSULTANT: From grassroots community resource fairs to 400 person galas, there's no small to midsize event that can't use an event checklist consult or creative ideas to enhance your presence. Ask about vendors suggestions for food, mixologist/bar, entertainment and balloon architects.

CO-HOST/GUEST : Engaging and charismatic, educated and bold, guest hosting TV or Radio/Podcast are a great service for those who need a compelling guest to pull in listeners/viewers.

AUTHOR/PANELIST/MODERATOR: Self-Published Author, Straight Outta Chemo: A Fight for Love and Life is the cancer story but also one of empowerment and triumph. Add a decorated author to your panel or health-centered summit.

TESTIMONIALS

“Collaborating with JayBee has assisted me with my communication skills and speech writing. Not only has she been able to assist me with my storytelling, but she has also provided me with resources from her personal network. She knows what she’s doing” - Daphne Warren, HR Generalist and member of Zeta Phi Beta, Sorority Inc.

“JayBee has hosted my Gala for 8 years straight. She elevates the room with her look, her voice and knows exactly what we need as a non-profit to get people giving.” - Christi McDaniel , Non-Profit Founder and Business Owner

“I’m a small business owner from Compton. JayBee was able to mentor, be an event sponsor for my paint and sip and found me a professional branding class that worked for my budget. She’s always giving back and helping others to become better.” - Erika Renae, Owner of Compton Isn’t Dangerous Clothing
